Margaret Ann Smith

For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God.

The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God,

and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ,

if indeed we suffer with Him,
that we may also be glorified together.

For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose.

What then shall we say to these things?
If God is for us, who can be against us?

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?
Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine,
or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us.

For I am persuaded that neither death nor life,

nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present
nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing,

shall be able to separate us from the love of God
which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

(From Romans 8)
